ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Date : 12.2.24

The Feedback Analysis Committee as the institute is responsible for collecting feedback from various stakeholders, including students, parents and alumni in order to monitor and evaluate the quality of its performance in relation to the curriculum and other curriculum-related issues. The committee is responsible for designing the feedback collection process and using the collected feedback to improve the institute's performance.

Based on their analysis and feedback, the committee has provided the following suggestions for improvement of the institutions:

1. To prepare video lectures
2. Extensive use of ICT.
3. Needed more ICT based classrooms.

Based on the recommendations made by stakeholders at the IQAC meeting, the following actions were taken:

1. To prepare video lectures based on curriculum of every subject and upload on YouTube.
2. ICT lectures in every subject were made mandatory.
3. Two more classes were made ICT equipped.

Student Satisfaction Survey Report: 2023-24

The feedback was collected from the students of academic year 2023-24. Out of 1914 admitted students roughly 12% i.e. 244 students participated in the online feedback. Regarding teachers preparedness for the class and preparedness for the class and their communication skills 87% have submitted positive feedback. 43% and 45% respectively have recorded their statement as good. 74% of the students had found internal assessment quite fair and satisfactory. Assignments are collected on time and this has been confirmed by 88% of students. So far as cognitive, social and emotional growth of the students are facilitated in the college only 58% have found quite significant.

The course outcome and program outcome are communicated to them regularly and 28% of students have confirmed this whereas 62.3% of students have said that it is done usually. 88% of the students found that the teachers help the students identify the right level of challenges and suggest ways to overcome them. 85% of students found that the teachers monitor and review the teaching learning process and they have strongly agreed to this view; whereas 10% of them has neutral views.

88% of the students are of the opinion that teachers views students centric method in order to enhance the learning experience. The college conducts extra -curricular activities round the year. 62.5% of the students have strongly agreed to this view. At the same time 65.2% of them have recorded that the teachers make all possible efforts to inculcate soft skills and other job- ready skills among the students. ICT tools like projectors, multimedia etc. are used rampantly by the teachers but, 56% of students have admit with this view, whereas 29% have simply agreed and 19% find it only satisfactory. None of the students have come out with any suggestion for further improvement.

The feedback result analysis is being communicated to college development committee for its perusal and its consideration.

Recommendations and suggestions of IQAC

CDC has informed to get more class equipped with ICT tools and create multi media enabled classrooms.
